

MOTION OF ATTORNEYS FOR SHOP CRAFT MEN DENIED BY WILKERSON

Refuses to Dismiss the Bill Introduced by Attorney General Daugherty on Which Injunction Against Men Was Granted—Upheld Government's Conspiracy Charge

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—Federal Judge Wilkerson today denied a motion by attorneys representing 400,000 federated shop crafts employees to dismiss the bill introduced by Attorney General Daugherty on which the injunction restraining the rail strikers from interfering with railroad transportation was based.

The shop-crafts motion for a trial in open court was granted, although decision on the defense motion for a jury trial in the equity case was reserved by the court until the calling of the trial. The trial date was fixed for May 2. The order directing that a special examiner take evidence in the case in various cities was set aside.

The court in its decision refusing to dismiss the preliminary injunction and the bill upheld the government conspiracy case introduced by the attorney general at the time the injunction was asked as the basis for its action.

Referring to the contention of Donald Riechberg, attorney for the shop crafts, that the injunction now was practically null and void because the workers are now back at their jobs and the strike no longer exists and to his argument that the federal district court has no jurisdiction outside the district for which it is appointed, the decision said:

The settlement of the strike on the part of the railroads and the alleged territorial limitations upon process in contempt proceedings furnish no stronger grounds for dissolving the injunction than for dismissing the bill. The defendants are here asserting their right to do things which are forbidden by the injunction.

Questions of procedure in case there are variations of the injunction can be disposed of and where necessary.

The government was given sixty days from January 8 to file depositions and the defendants thirty days from the expiration of that time to make their statements. In making his decision on the Walker extradition case, Chief Justice William Howard Taft said in the strike bulletins issued by the shop crafts organization which he held constituted enough evidence to deny the motion to dismiss the bill and enough evidence for trial on the presumption that the shop crafts unions had engineered a conspiracy to restrict interstate commerce.

Attorney Richberg held that the decision to ran open trial constituted a victory for his clients.

ROSEWOOD, Fla., Jan. 5.—Armed posses of white men, numbering between 200 and 300, tonight were searching the countryside for Jesse Hunter, escaped negro convict, search for whom last night in connection with attack on a white girl resulted in the killing of white men and negroes and the wounding of four other white men. A THOUGHT

The Lord is good to all; and His tender mercies are over all His works. All things shall praise thee, O Lord; and Thy saints shall bless thee.—Psalm 145:9-10.

Years do not make sages; they only make old men.—Madame Swetchine.

Governor Hyde of Missouri in his message to the general assembly of that state declares law enforcement the most important issue in Missouri. That same statement could be truthfully applied to a national way. Governor Hyde is strongly in favor of the establishment of a state police force in order to aid the law enforcement program. The experiences of other states justify the position of the Missouri governor.

Most any Jacksonville man will admit that he doesn't know much about Dr. Emil Cune, the French savant, nor about psycho-analysis. However, most any one can understand that some benefits would accrue from the continued repetition of the words, "Day by day in every way I am getting better and better."

It seems to be impossible to repeat that sentence continually without a certain mental buoyancy that reflects improved physical condition.

There is a fine thought as to the possibilities for business advancement that are open to young men of America in considering the new presidents of Marshall Field & Co., and Armour & Co. James Simpson, who is now head of Marshall Field & Co., began his work with that great firm as an office boy and messenger for Marshall Field.

J. Edison White is the newly chosen president of Armour & Co. and it is remembered that not so very many years ago he was an humble employe at a packing plant in Peoria.

These men have been raised to positions of great prominence in the world of business, not because they had wealth or influential friends. Their rise is due to their indefatigable industry and of course a capacity for business. These careers give color to the platitude that "There is always room at the top."

NO OVERPRODUCTION.
Low prices of farm products and the distress that rests upon the agricultural industry is not to be explained by overproduction, said James R. Howard, former president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, in a recent address before the American Economic Association at Chicago. Continuing the Globe-Democrat says: "There is certainly no overproduction on the farms," he declared, "when there are hungry mouths and unclad bodies in all parts of the world."

"This assertion can hardly be questioned. Yet production is the basis upon which all prices are made, whatever other causes may exist, and it is a fact that farm prices are still low. It is also true, of course, that the production of the principal farm crops is too great for the needs of this country. After these needs have been supplied a surplus remains, which does not represent overproduction, but normally represents our exports to countries abroad. At the present time there is actual suffering from a shortage of food and clothing that could be supplied from this surplus. Curiously, however, effects that are the equivalent of overproduction are felt by the American farmer, and effects that are not essentially different from those of underproduction are felt in Europe.

condition of affairs, obviously is to be found in the obstruction of exports. The strong demand that exists in Europe would be sufficient to consume the surplus agricultural products and, elevate prices very considerably, but while conditions in countries abroad remain unsettled and their ability to pay consequently limited, exports will be limited. Here is to be found the explanation of low prices, and not in overproduction. There is a demand for all the farmer will produce, and he should be concerned in seeing the readjustments effected which would encourage exports, and by consuming the surplus result in more favorable prices for farm products."

OPPOSES CENTRALIZED GOVERNMENT.
"The Government at Washington can never be stronger than the homes it comes out of," declares Representative Frank L. Greene, of Vermont, in a protest against the prevailing tendency toward enervating paternalism. Greene is an editor of high standing in New England journalistic circles, is a public speaker of rare attainments, and was recently elected to the Senate as a recognition of his satisfactory service for 12 years in the House. His recent discussion of the evils of paternalism was contained in a letter endorsing the purpose of the "Sentinels of the Republic," an organization which takes as its motto "Every Citizen a Sentinel; Every Home a Sentry Box." In the course of the letter, Mr. Greene said:

"Civil liberty was born at the firsidge, was reared and made strong by experience in local self-government, and forever renewed itself in successive generations of men and women who did not expect the Nation's Government to do for them what they ought to do for themselves at home. This American experiment in civics was originally meant to be a popular government, deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed, proceeding from the countless hearthstones of the land to Washington, and not descending from Washington upon the hearthstones. The sturdy old idea of a sturdy old generation was that that was the best government that governed least and maintained a healthy social order. Faithful to that policy, free government in America waxed and prospered for many years.

"But nowadays a misguided public interest is persistently uprooting the local self-government that has bred strong men and women for the conduct of national affairs, is centralizing the government in well-nigh innumerable bureaus and commissions at Washington, and thru one device and another of paternalism is seducing the ancient spirit of independence and self-reliance among our people, gradually bringing them to be dependent upon the will and favor of politicians in the National Capital and implanting in them an ever-growing sense of irresponsibility and ease that can in the end breed a generation of parasites and helpless dependents with whom no so-called free government could either actually govern or be free."

BETTER TRAINED TEACHERS
The Educational Press Bulletin in the last issue has an interesting statement by Supt. Blair about improved standards in teaching. In part Supt. Blair said:

The only sure way to lift the standards of education in our public schools is to lift the standard of teaching. The only way to lift the standard of teaching is to lift the standards of preparation and qualification of teachers. Fine buildings, fine laboratories, fine apparatus, extended courses of study are well enough in their way and very essential, but they all come to naught unless the teachers have the vision to utilize this equipment in the instruction of the children.

What gets over into the education of children must first be gotten into the preparation and training and skill of the teacher. It is had enough through a truancy law to force children to attend school in buildings that are not sanitary and comfortable in their physical equipments. It is much worse to force them to come and sit day after day, week after week, month after month, under the direction of an incompetent, unskilled, ignorant teacher.

Will it ever be possible to guarantee to the parents who send their children to public schools that the teachers of their children will have that preparation and training which fit them for this work? No such guarantee can ever be given until we have changed our certificating laws so that the incompetent and the untrained can not find entrance into the teaching profession, and until we have provided ample training facilities to train all those who wish to equip themselves for teaching.

One of the greatest steps ever taken by a commonwealth in this direction was taken in 1915 by the passage of the new certificating law. It went farther in the direction of keeping out the incompetent and attracting the competent than it was thought possible to go at that time. But in order to secure the passage of the law, certain concessions and compromises had to be made. Those parts of the law which embodied these compromises and concessions, like the teacher's tail, it was supposed would be absorbed and disappear as soon as they ceased to serve a useful purpose.

The war with all of its attendant consequences has helped to delay the absorption of these temporary portions of the certificating law. It is believed, however, that we have reached the time when a very advanced step can be taken in lifting the standards of qualification and training required for entering a John. Much has already been done in the way of providing a W. F. facilities, but much more must be done. The raising, improvement and enlargement of our high school facilities has more than doubled the enrollment in our high schools every ten years. The demand for high school teachers has been so great that the authorities have reached down into the elementary schools, taking away some of our best trained teachers who should have remained in the field of elementary education.

It was believed that the only way to meet this increased demand for high school teachers and avoid these depredations upon elementary school teachers was to create five normal schools into teachers' colleges and authorize them to offer a four years' course and prepare high school teachers. This extension of their course and the enlargement of their function should in no wise interfere with their work in preparing elementary school teachers. If the state will enlarge its support of these institutions there is no reason why they should not increase their output of well trained elementary school teachers and at the same time turn out a large number of young men and women well trained for teaching in our high schools, thus increasing the supply of high school teachers and elementary school teachers at the same time.

One of the necessary improvements in this direction is to make the state board in charge of these teachers' colleges an autonomous and independent as is the board of trustees in charge of the state university. It is difficult for the ordinary layman to know how vital to the enlargement and efficiency of these teacher training institutions is this guarantee of freedom in their management and control.

With a very liberal increase in the salaries of teachers the tide of young men and women coming out of our high schools is turning in larger and larger volume towards our teacher training institutions. In order, however, to make certain that when these persons are prepared for employment, it is necessary that the certificating law shall be amended so as to prevent the incompetent from entering in and occupying the places which these young people have trained themselves to fill.

The only certain guarantee of a better quantity and quality of education for succeeding generations is a better trained and a better prepared teaching force. Let us do all within our power through amendments to the certificating law and an enlargement of our teacher training institutions to guarantee this advancement.

QUALITY CLEANLINESS SERVICE

DIFFICULTIES FACE BONUS SERVICE BOARD

Facts Explained for American Legion By Chief Clerk of Board.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 5.—Difficulties facing the Service Recognition Board in preparing to pay $50,000,000 of the World War Veterans' bonus, were outlined here by the chief clerk of the board, Palmer Edmunds, in an announcement prepared for the American Legion.

"Never," said Mr. Edmunds, "has an official body found itself confronted with problems of greater complexity than the Service Recognition Board of Illinois, which at the last general election was charged by the people with administering distribution of the $50,000,000 voted for compensation of the World War Veterans of this State. Over 350,000 veterans, or beneficiaries of deceased veterans, are waiting to file their claims. To prepare complete application forms which meet every requirement of the Illinois law, to get these forms distributed in all parts of the State simultaneously and in the necessary quantities, to receive them back in orderly manner, to check them individually with minute attention to detail and an infinite variety of technical questions of law, to compute accounts and loss-proof filing systems—to do all this in a business like manner and yet meet the public demand that the veterans shall receive $50,000,000 within a comparatively few months of time, is a proposition that might well test the capacity of the largest and most efficiently organized private corporation in America.

In view of all this, it has been necessary to lay the most careful plans for practice and procedure, and adopt far reaching rules and regulations to insure efficiency and speed in operation. And the public can well understand the need of following these regulations in order that the work of paying this fund in the least possible time may be permitted to go ahead to the best interest of all concerned.

It should be understood at the outset that in view of the injunction proceeding initiated last month in Springfield, no money is in sight for the payment of claims before several months have elapsed, and no applicant can expect to receive a check for a single dollar before the Supreme Court of Illinois has made its final ruling in this matter. Pending this time, the Board will proceed with the checking and consideration of claims, and in the event of final favorable ruling by the courts will have a large number of applications approved and ready for payment.

A few words should be said about the general nature of the application forms provided. Form No. 1 for living veterans only, is already off the press and by January 15 will be distributed throughout the State to posts of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Spanish American War Veterans, other patriotic organizations and the county clerks.

To take care of the heirs-at-law of deceased soldiers, it has been necessary to devise five special forms. One of these, form No. 2 is what might be termed a "base" form, and must be executed by all heirs at law, regardless of relationship. Before any beneficiary can establish a claim there must be proof that the deceased veteran himself could have obtained compensation if he were living, and Form No. 2 provides the basis for making this proof. With Form No. 2 beneficiaries must execute and forward a special form, depending upon their relationship to deceased.

Because of the number and variety of blanks necessary to cover all classes of beneficiaries, and because of the confusion that would inevitably result from a random distribution, the Board announced that these forms would be obtainable only by the beneficiaries themselves upon mail application to the office of the board at Springfield, therefore the Board wishes to advise widows, children, mothers, fathers, or brothers or sisters of deceased Illinois soldiers who claim compensation write immediately for the proper forms, stating their relationship. A widow is first in line, next comes the children. If there was no wife or children, or if they are dead the mother comes in, etc. The Board desires to give those beneficiaries the same consideration as will be accorded living veterans, and delivery of Form No. 1 has been held up to give heirs-at-law an equal chance at early consideration.

Perhaps the question of greatest difficulty and of greatest interest to many veterans is that of residence, and in taking up application Form No. 1 for a more detailed consideration, comment upon that question is naturally appropriate. The rules of the Board do not require that a man should have lived in Illinois for any particular length of time, but they do require that he must show the Board that he had previous to the enlistment taken up his abode in Illinois with the intention of making it his home. One of the most satisfactory pieces of evidence in this connection is the statement made by the men at the time of enlistment that they were residents of Illinois. Nobody thought of a bonus in those days, and what a man said on the point of residence at that time is presumably conclusive; and if a man said he lived in Illinois and the Service record cards in the possession of the Board show investigation that he gave Illinois as his residence, his way will be easy on that point. In the case of such a man, many of the questions provided on the form would not really be needed by the Board.

But we all know that thousands of men gave some other State as their residence at that time, when as a matter of fact their real residence may have been in Illinois. These will be difficult cases to decide, and every point which can be by any possibility have a bearing on the question must be raised. There are thousands of cases in which the board will need every answer on the blank, and still be compelled to call for further evidence to satisfy itself. Inasmuch as the Board cannot foresee what any man's answers will disclose, the only business like thing that can be done to expedite matters is to require every applicant to make a full answer to all questions proposed, and it is believed that all will realize the importance of doing this very essential thing.

Unity Workers of Presbyterian Church Gave Supper at Colton Home Thursday Night—Other Woodson News

Woodson, Jan. 5.—The Unity Workers of the Woodson Presbyterian church gave an oyster supper Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Chester Colton. The house was decorated with potted plants, a color scheme of green and white being followed. The general committee on arrangements included Mrs. A. E. Powell, Mrs. John Baxter, and Mrs. J. C. Colton, and Mrs. J. Leach was in charge of the soup.

After the serving of the supper there was an informal musical program as follows:
Solo—William Colton.
Violin solo—Fred Quimby, with Miss Sadie Butler as accompanist.

Instrumental duets—Sadie and Lucille Butler.
Piano solo—Twyla Butler.
Quartet numbers—William Colton, J. C. Colton, Fred Quimby, Dr. R. R. Jones.

At the close of the program came games and various amusing stunts, and the evening at a whole was very enjoyable.

Household Science Club Met
The Household Science Club held a regular meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nellis Crain. The members responded to roll call with "Thoughts for Every Day," taken from one of Gleiser's books. Mrs. Maude Spalhower read several of Edgar Guest's poems, and Mrs. Emma Self sang a solo, "Beautiful Land of My Dreams."

An especially interesting number on the program was a paper by Mrs. Stella Rawlings, entitled "Folks Sometimes Forget That Little Pitchers Have Big Ears."

During the business session the club accepted the resignation of two of the members. Mrs. Emma Hemmrough was elected to fill one vacancy and the other is to be filled later. Later came a social hour and the serving of delightful refreshments. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 17, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Kinner.

Skin Ablaze with Eczema
Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red blood cells. S. S. S. builds them up the million! You can increase your red blood cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities are eliminated. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact?

exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities are eliminated. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-tingling torture and its soul-torturing, unrelenting itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-giants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1892! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-changers and body-builders known to the world! When you put these facts together—then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions look more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur M. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, O., writes: "My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and in a few days I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot tell too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red blood-cells, it cures rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

WHITE HALL PLAYERS
DEFEAT CHESTERFIELD

Excellent Playing in Final Quarter Brought Victory to White Hall Basketball Team in Game Friday Night.

White Hall, Jan. 5.—What was unanimously conceded to be the best basketball game ever staged at the local high school gymnasium was that of Friday night between White Hall and Chesterfield. The local boys had been behind up to the fourth quarter, but came back in a remarkable way at that time and scored 15 points. The score at the end of the third quarter was 14 to 6 in favor of Chesterfield and the White Hall boys began the final quarter with defeat staring them in the face. However, the score at the close was 18 to 15 in favor of the local team.

Hensberger, Goode and McClure each scored two in the last quarter for White Hall. England, White Hall's regular center, entered the game in the latter part after being out the past two weeks because of an injury. The Chesterfield team is the best team which White Hall has played this season. Chesterfield has played fourteen games this season prior to the White Hall game, and has only lost two of them.

In a curtain raiser the Winchester Indians defeated the White Hall Indians by a score of 17 to 10.

The Friday night game was the eighth straight victory for the high school team. The lineup and score of the two teams is given below:

Jacksonville Gives
Springfield Jolt

Surprised Capital City Bunch by Winning Game Last Night by Score of 20 to 13 — Visitors Made Only Two Field Baskets.

Jacksonville high basketball five surprised Springfield high last night when it jolted her for a 20 to 13 win in David Prince gymnasium.

The game was witnessed by an overflow crowd such as always greets the Springfield five, and among those present were many Springfield fans who rooted strenuously for their team but did not instill enough pep into them to win.

The game in a sense was a surprise to local fans as Jacksonville did not make a good showing in the White Hall game. The local defense was not good in that contest and supporters of the red and white feared that Springfield's fast forwards would be able to penetrate it for many baskets.

When the game started the locals revealed a stonewall defense, the work of Zell especially standing out, until he was retired to the side lines on personal fouls. Hackett who succeeded him also did good work and succeeded in putting across a field basket. Hopper at the other guard position also gave a good account of himself.

Deatherage and Putnam were the main point makers for Jacksonville. Deatherage led with a total of ten points and did some good free throwing. Putnam played one of his best games at center and local fans know when he is right there is no better high school center in this section. Hunter has not been able to get the range of the basket as yet and is handicapped by a bad ankle.

For Springfield Hyndman was the whole show. Without this player Springfield would have been hopelessly beaten. Hyndman made 11 of Springfield's 13 points and did some of the best work from the foul line ever seen on the David Prince floor. Nine of the eleven points made by him were by free throws.

Jacksonville held Springfield to two field baskets. Hyndman turned in one and Madden the other. Madden went out on fouls before the game ended. He played a wonderful game and was a large part of the Springfield team as he wobbled on defense after he left the game.

The game was one of the kind that Jacksonville and Springfield always play, whether it be basketball or football. The spectators were in a constant turmoil from the first to the final whistle and the fast work of both teams kept their adherents cheering constantly. It was surely no place for a man with a weak heart.

C. E. Brockman of Jacksonville was the referee and his work was excellent and gave satisfaction to both teams and the spectators. Brockman is without doubt one of the best basketball officials in the state and when he is in charge of a game a fair deal is assured both teams. The score:

ROUTT HIGH WON
FROM ASHLAND 28-13

Local Lads Play Good Game Friday Night — Run Away from Opponents in Second Half.

Route high school defeated Ashland high at that place last night by a score of 28 to 13. The game was well played and during the first half was close, the score at the half way mark being 10 to 8 in favor of Route.

The floor of the Ashland gymnasium had just been oiled and the footing was rather slippery for both teams. It affected Route more than it did Ashland, and it was not until the second half that the players were able to get going.

Route displayed some excellent team work and Gaitsens and Gebert did some good basket shooting. Especially was this true of Gaitsens who took McKavitt's place in the second quarter. He got away from the Ashland guards a number of times and the ball was fed to him for points.

The Ashland players kept Gebert pretty well covered during the game and held his field goals down. However, he did some good work from the foul line. Doyle and Mallen at guard did some fine work and in the second half stopped the Ashland offense without trouble.

Hinds, Beadles, Shivers and Christen were the point scorers for Ashland. Coach Coenen drove to Ashland and returned last night. The term was unable to get back last night and will return this morning. The score:

CENTRAL BASEBALL
LEAGUE DISCLOSED

Flint, Mich., Jan. 5.—Directors of the Central Baseball League disclosed that organization today to facilitate the proposed merger with the Michigan Ontario circuit. With the disbanding of the league, E. W. Dickerson of Grand Rapids, its president, announced his retirement from organized baseball.

The publisher was held up by two young men who were described as well-dressed. "They appeared youths any one would invite into their homes," said Mr. Cook. They took the publisher's wallet containing less than $50.

Chicago—Tito Schipa of the Chicago Civic Opera Co., today turned over to postal inspectors a "black hand" letter demanding $10,000 under penalty of death. There were rumors that some of the other singers had received similar letters, but were unverified.

POISONING WIFE

Fairmont, Minn., Jan. 5.—Clarence Hamblen who confessed to giving his wife poison which caused her death pleaded guilty to a charge of second degree murder in county court tonight and was sentenced to life imprisonment at the state penitentiary by Judge Doan. Hamblen was indicted today by the grand jury and arraigned a short time later.

SUNDAY GAMES MAY CAUSE WARFARE

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—A breach developed between two New York major league clubs over the scheduling of Sunday games next season that may cause considerable trouble at the joint schedule meeting of the two leagues at Atlantic City, N. J., tomorrow.

Telegrams sent by officers of both clubs to the presidents of their respective leagues now in Atlantic City disclose a state of open warfare that had its start in alleged ejection of the Yankees from the Polo Grounds, home of the Giants which forced the American Leaguers to construct their new stadium.

It evidently was after hearing that the Giant ownership was maneuvering for the scheduling of conflicting Sunday dates in New York that the Yankee proprietors yesterday wired President Ban Johnson of the American League to oppose any such move that might be made at the Atlantic City meeting.

When news of this was published today, Charles A. Stone, President of the Giants Senate sent this telegram to John A. Heydler head of the parent circuit:

"The two major league clubs in New York draw from a population of ten million and the New York National League Clubs believe that if the attendance is sufficient no harm can come by having as many conflicting Sunday dates as possible. Five days will mean approximately 100,000 to this club which we consider is a good and sufficient reason for wanting to obtain the consent of President Johnson of the American League for the plan of conflicting dates."

When he obtained a copy of this Colonel Huston, who yesterday announced his decision to retain his part ownership of the Yankees wired to President Johnson:

"His reasons," said the Huston telegram, "were entirely mercenary. The only business reason possible for the Giants to advance after having peremptorily ordered us off the Polo Grounds was to secure these extra Sundays which would compensate them for the loss of the rent the Yankees were paying them. Because we have outgrown the Giants remarkably during the past three years it is not the money fear which actuates us in our opposition to conflicting dates but the real sincere fear that for the time being Sunday baseball may be overdone in New York City."

"Colonel Ruppert (joint owner of the Yankees) expressed the same belief before leaving for Chicago today. He feels more strongly than I do."

FRANKLIN TEAMS WIN
TWO BASKET GAMES

First Team Beats Modesto, 23-8. Second Team Triumphs Yankees, 32-12.

Franklin, Jan. 5.—Franklin High school first and second teams outplayed their respective opponents, Modesto High and the Yankee Five of Jacksonville, in a double header here tonight. The Modesto men losing to the first team, 23-8, and the Yankees suffering defeat at the hands of the second team, 32-12. The visitors were outclassed, but put up a hard fight, and the scores would have been more interesting if their tries for basket had been more successful.

WELL KNOWN CHAUTAUQUA

Many Morgan county people re-delivered here at the Jacksonville chautauqua by Mabel Quam Stevens, and will regret to hear of her death. Mrs. Stevens died in St.

Augustine, Fla. She had known for many months that her condition was serious but the end came suddenly.

The news of Mrs. Stevens' death was received in Jacksonville by Charles H. Story. Last winter when Mr. and Mrs. Story were in Florida they met Mrs. Stevens at Stuart, where relatives of the Story family are residents. It was a letter from those relatives that included the mention of Mrs.
Stevens' death.

The remains were brought to the old home of the deceased at Sheridan, Ill.

HAYS ISSUES FINAL WORD ON ARBUCKLE

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Will H.
Hays, president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., today issued what he termed his final word on the case of Roscoe C.
(Patty) Arbuckle.

Mr. Hays' statement was issued after a conference yesterday with his committee on public relations, concerning the status of the comedy star. Mr. Hays expressed the belief that Arbuckle should have a chance to "make good" after his acquittal.

His "final" statement follows:
"All suggestions which have been received from all viewpoints,
and they are many and varied,
will be referred to the proper parties. This is the kind of question that must be left finally to the judgment of the public on the one hand, and on the other hand to those who have business associations with the individual and the individual himself.
I have reviewed the artificial situation of one man being or appearing to be the judge in such matters either for one hundred and ten million persons or for a great industry and art. Such a condition in the development of a business is absolutely unsound economically, and from other standpoints, and permanently must not be."

WOULD CURTAIL DEBATE ON BILL

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Notice was served on the senate today by Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, in charge of the administration shipping bill that he would endeavor tomorrow thru unanimous consent agreement to curtail debate on the shipping measure.

Charges have been made by Republican supporters of the ship legislation that filibustering tactics were being employed to prevent the measure from coming to a vote and Senator Jones thru his proposed agreement would attempt to close debate on the measure.

teresting address on "Delinquency."

A. D. Fairbank, L. S. Doane and

FIFTH OF BANDIT GANG IS FOUND IN HAYSTACK FRIDAY

Trail of Blood Led to Place Where Bandit Was Hidden

(By The Associated Press)

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Jan. 5.—
The fifth leader of the bandit gang which fought a gun battle with officers at Maurice, Iowa early this morning, wounding three of them was found hiding in a hay stack three miles north of freedom by a sheriff's posse tonight.
A trail of blood across the snow led the officers to the place where the gunman, who was believed to be Harry Dury of Sioux City, lay seriously wounded, bullets having pierced his abdomen.
Four other members of the bank bandits, two of them known to Sioux City police, were captured earlier in the day. One bandit is still at large. Guarded by a squad of armed men the five bandits are held in the county jail at Orange City, Iowa. Two of the bandits have been identified as Elmer Dingman, facing trial here for robbery of a grocery store, and Pohn Lavery, recently sentenced to the penitentiary at Fort Madison for five years for the holdup of Albert Flanders, a Sioux City stockman in Morningside last summer. Lavery is out on bond pending an appeal to the supreme court.

Two of the men arrested in connection with the attempted bank robbery claim to be Frank Olson of Chicago and Guy E.
Brooke of Louisville, Ky., but local authorities believe they are Sioux City men. The bandits were surprised while robbing the vault of the Sioux County Savings Bank of Maurice, Iowa, which they had blown open, as the result of the finding of cut telegraph wires by Basil J. Sherlock, train dispatcher, who called the sheriff's office at Orange City, Iowa. Sheriff Synherst and Deputy Sheriff Dykestra organized a posse and came upon the bandits while they were looting the vault, and a gun fight followed in which the two officers and Dr. C. V. Fisher were wounded.

THE DAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

Plans for attempting to pass the Bursum pension bill over President Harding's veto were abandoned.

Appointment of D. R. Slissinger, present comptroller of the currency as governor of the federal reserve board was regarded as certain.

Arguments were presented in the supreme court on the question of permitting American vessels to sell liquor outside the three mile limit.

The British debt commission which is expected to begin funding negotiations with the American Commission next week called on President Harding and Secretary Mellon it was authoritatively stated that the next move in the reparations question, so far as the United States is concerned must come from France or one of the other allied powers.

The department of justice ruled that agreement and contracts entered into for the purpose of maintaining an "open shop" labor policy contravene the conspiracy clauses of the Clayton act.

The senate foreign relations committee decided to ascertain the views of the administration on the Robinson resolution which would authorize American representation on the reparations commission before considering the measure further.

Congress was urged by Secretary Mellon in a letter read in the house to pass the Green resolution which would authorize the submission to the states of a constitutional amendment prohibiting further issuance of tax exempt securities.

HEARING BEGUN.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 5.—Hearing in the government's claim for more than $5,000 against the estate of Max Lewis, former liquor dealer began here today. The sum asked, represents fines and accumulations penalties assessed for alleged failure to pay license fees for sale of liquor under provisions of the internal revenue act. Lewis was found dead beneath his car at Harvey, Ill., in September 1921 and the cause of his death was never determined.

ALTON MISSES MANY TOOLS.

Since the recent effort to keep boxes of tools upon Alton passenger locomotives was first attempted, some of the tools have mysteriously disappeared, especially at St. Louis and Roodhouse. The engines that make the round trip to Chicago have been coming back with the tools intact, but this is not always true when they go south and west. It has been found that the tool boxes are being plundered while the crews are getting their rest and while the engines lay in the roundhouses. An investigation is now being made to determine where the missing property has gone.

The Alton officials are somewhat disappointed over the outcome of their experiment. Even with strong locks, supposed to be burglar proof, the boxes are being opened and the tools abstracted. The removal is very annoying to the engine crews who may need the tools at any moment while on their runs.

GAINS OUTNUMBER LOSSES IN STOCKS

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Professional interests recovered today from their uneasiness over the disturbing foreign political situation and continued to bid up stock prices while speculators for the decline, who had offered stocks freely yesterday hastened to cover. Profit-taking caused some irregularity in the late dealings, but sales outnumbered the losses at the close.

Establishment of a renewal rate of 33 1/3 per cent for call money the lowest in several months had a favorable effect on sentiment. The price was later marked up to five per cent on government withdrawal of $10,000,000 from local depository banks. An abundance of time money brought a further recession in the rate 1/4 day loans being arranged at 1 1/2 per cent and the longer maturities at 4 1/2. Commercial paper rates also eased, the bulk of the business being done on a 4 1/2 per cent basis.

German marks dropped to 1.15¢ a hundred a new record in the early dealings but rose later to 1.19¢. The French francs, which had fallen as low as 6.92 cents snapped back to 7 and demand sterling advanced 1/4¢ over last night's close to $1.64 1/2.

Confidential Can advanced 1/2 in sympathy.

U. S. Steel touched 108 1/2 but fell back to 107 for a slight fractional loss at the close. Studebaker was unchanged on the day and Baldwin closed at a net loss of one point. Payment of dividends on the common and preferred stocks of the Cloverleaf railroad, owned by the Van Sweringen interests of Cleveland infused new strength into the shares.

Some outstanding strong spots were: American Agricultural Chemical, DuPont, Otis Elevator, Loose-Wiles Biscuit, Remington Typewriter, common and second preferred; Lorillard Tobacco and Fisher Body, preferred, gains running from 2 points to 3. Note-worthy weak spots were the American shares, each off about a point and Pressed Steel Car and Chicago & Northwestern preferred, each off about 2 points.

Liberty bonds were slightly weaker showing the following losses of cents per hundred: First 4 1/2; Second 4 1/2; and the 4 1/2 4 cents.

WHEAT TURNS UPWARD OWING TO SCARCITY

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—After a hesitating start, wheat turned upward in price today owing largely to scarcity of offerings and to indications of demand for shipments to Europe by way of the Gulf of Mexico. Closing quotations were unsettled 1/2 to 3/4 net higher, with May $1.18 1/2 to $1.18 1/2 and July $1.11 1/2 to $1.11 1/2.

Corn gained 1/4 to 1/2 and oats 1/2 to 3/4. In provisions the outcome ranged from 5¢ decline to a like advance.

At first the wheat market was depressed by reports that foreign selling orders were being executed but on the downturn of prices some of the most active of recent traders on the bear side turned buyers, and found difficulty in purchasing on the advance which ensued.

Some buying appeared to have been based on hopes that the Republican tangle would speedily assume a hopeful aspect but in the absence of any such

FOUR SMALL FIRES IN CITY YESTERDAY A. M.

William Williams, a foreman for the gas company, this morning saved the residence of Triala Zierler, 202 West College avenue from probable destruction by fire. Williams was going along the street when he saw flames on the roof of the Zeigler home. He went into the house, gave the alarm, and then climbed to the roof and beat out the flames. Firemen were then with the truck at the residence of Mrs. Mary Goes on Pine street, where they extinguished a small fire.

Small fires were extinguished during the morning at the residences of Mrs. Mary Hudson, 332 North East street, and Guy Lynn, 116 Spaulding place. At all four places where fires occurred this morning, the damage was slight.

JACKSONVILLE TO HAVE AUTO SHOW

Automotive Dealers Inaugurate Plans for the Biggest Auto Show Ever Given — Will Be Held Under Big Top.

Jacksonville is to have an automobile show and merchants' and manufacturers' exposition this spring, more entertaining and more interesting and on a greater scale than ever before attempted. The show will be held under canvas with adequate arrangements made for heating should this prove necessary.

The above was the decision reached at a meeting of the Jacksonville Automotive Dealers' association at its regular meeting at the Dunlap hotel last night.

There were present as guests of the association W. C. Armbruster and Ross Rozarth of the Springfield Tent & Awning company, and Allen Minter of Springfield. Messrs. Armbruster and Minter are well known to Jacksonville residents, the former having furnished tents for many Jacksonville events and the latter engaged in interior decorating for shows and expositions and in banking various high class vaudeville and circus acts.

Following a proposal from these gentlemen of what they were prepared to furnish in the way of "big tops," decorations and entertainment features and suggestions as to the best manner to stage the event to insure success, President Strawn appointed a committee of five to investigate suitable locations and to set tentative date for the opening of the show. The committee named is J. F. Claus, S. W. Babb, J. G. Berger, W. J. Houston and William Cocking, and it is to report as soon as possible.

Merchants to Co-operate.
On receiving the investigating committee's report President Strawn will ask the merchants of the city to name a committee of five to cooperate with the association in formulating plans and working out the many details incident to the undertaking.

The association with the hearty cooperation of the city officials, the chamber of commerce and business men generally has staged three very successful events of this nature. The shows have brought hundreds of strangers to Jacksonville and have afforded the city favorable publicity throughout the entire country, as well as providing interesting and educational sights and clean amusements.

The members of the association are to a man enthusiastic over the idea and plans thus far suggested and are determined that the coming exposition will be the biggest and best ever staged in part of the country—more exhibits, more music, more entertainment, more space and something entirely new in decorations and lighting.

During the business session the question of the bad condition of the piece of roadway connecting the hard road with Morton avenue was discussed. It was felt that this should be remedied as quickly as possible and President Strawn appointed Messrs. Houston, Cocking and Claus, a committee to confer with the proper persons to see what can be done and if the association can be of assistance.

Prior to the regular meeting the association members and guests enjoyed a special banquet served in the large dining room of the Dunlap hotel.

The secretary was instructed to write Decatur, Evanston and Kansas City, to obtain information and data on the methods and outline of work used by commissions in these cities in working out a city plan. The commission is seeking especially for information as to how to begin work.

The public library is to be asked to prepare a list of all literature in the library on city planning and zoning, so that such matter will be available for the use of the committee. Magazine articles, books and other forms of printed matter are to be studied in the search for facts on these matters.

President Rammelkamp, Secretary Welch and C. Y. Rowe, were appointed a committee to prepare material for the next meeting, which will be held on the second Friday evening in February. It was decided to hold regular meetings on the second Friday evening in each month.

MYERS BROTHERS

WESTERN FARMERS STILL HAVE PROBLEMS

John D. Cain, who made a visit in Jacksonville, is expected to remain for some time in Omaha but has not thought of permanently leaving Jacksonville. Mr. Cain said in a recent conversation that while the business of the Nebraska Consolidated Milling Co., with which he is connected, is developing, that general business conditions in Nebraska and other western states are not satisfactory. The farmers out there have not recovered from their heavy losses resulting from the low prices of 1921. While prices are very much better, the farmer is so hard hit that his recovery cannot be repaid.

Had it not been for the latitude shown by the government and by bankers generally, many a farmer would have been in bankruptcy, who today is well on the way to a stable financial condition.

Since Mr. Cain has been in the west the milling company has taken over an additional mill and thru traveling representatives and various forms of publicity has expanded its business into central and southern states.
